

Birmingham Man Accepts Invitation to Pass Upon Poultry at Dothan Fair.

Dr. Hal F. Halstead of Birmingham has accepted an invitation to act in the capacity of judge for the annual exhibition of the Southeast Alabama Poultry and Pet Stock Association in connection with the fair here October 25-30.

Dr. Halstead ranks as one of the leading poultry experts in the state and it was after examining a number of authorities that the committee decided to extend the invitation to Dr. Halstead.

Robert West, of Montgomery, who was judge of the poultry show last year, and whose opinions are also highly valued will judge the poultry at the Birmingham fair.

The President Will Vote For Woman Suffrage

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson will vote for the woman suffrage state constitutional amendment in New Jersey, his home state, at the special election October 19.—He said today he would vote, not as the leader of the Democratic party, but as a private citizen.

Mr. Wilson said he believed the question should not be made a party issue and should be decided by the states.

The following statement was given out at the White House office:

"I intend to vote for woman suffrage in New Jersey because I believe the time has come to extend that privilege and responsibility to the women of the state, but I shall vote, not as the leader of my party in the nation, but only my private conviction as a citizen of New Jersey, called upon by the legislature of the state to express his conviction at the polls. I think that New Jersey will be greatly benefited by the change.

"My position with regard to the way in which this great question should be handled is well known. I believe that it should be settled by the states and not by the national government, and that in no circumstances should it be made a party question, and my view has grown stronger at every turn in the agitation."

Secretaries Garrison, McAdoo, Redfield and Wilson, who will also vote on the question in the near future, have declared in favor of equal suffrage.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK.

The list of those who will make the race for clerk of the circuit court is growing, the latest addition being W. F. Turner, of Wickburg, beat one. Mr. Turner has filed his notice at the probate office and says he will be his own campaign manager.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Woodrow Wilson, the president of the United States, announced tonight his engagement to Mrs. Norman B. Galt, of Washington. The date of the wedding has not been fixed, but it probably will take place in December at the home of the bride-elect.

Crowds Face Rain on Opening Night City Auditorium

A slow rain did not keep citizens away from the city hall auditorium last night. Many came early and were shown their seats by the ushers. Soon the auditorium, balcony and gallery contained a very large audience. It is estimated that more than 1,000 were present.

Opening night was carried through with a smoothness worthy of especial mention. There was only a small measure of confusion in showing late-comers to their chairs. For this precision Manager Fred Thomas and the ushers are to be congratulated.

The musical numbers, as predicted by The Eagle, were all that could have been expected. The vocal solos were good as were the piano selections. The violin solos and reading were also well executed. The orchestra played well, showing more than a passing familiarity with their selections. The audience evinced appreciation by applauding liberally every number on the program.

When the curtain rose the mayor, members of city council, board of education and the school superintendent, occupied chairs arranged in a circle on the stage. Mr. W. R. Chapman arose to make the public address. He interspersed his talk with many jokes. The speaker paid tribute to mayor, councilmen, special committee and all those who had a part in the achievement, but particularly did he compliment the "people of Dothan," with whom he charged with actual responsibility. He gave figures showing Dothan's growth, and spoke of Dothan's "grit." The first applause came when Mr. Chapman referred to George Heller, the city engineer, as being the man who knows more about the building than anybody else.

Drama Here First.

Now that the city hall auditorium has been formally "christened" without the use champagne and other intoxicating fluids, and the aforementioned "christening" has fully come up to expectations, it is well to look forward to what the future holds in store for drama patrons.

The first thing on tap is "The Winning of Barbara Worth," booked for the night of October 15. This is Lamberg and Yeomans production and Miss Gertrude Barker will be seen in the title role. Many Dothan people have read the book which has to do with the desert sands and that sort of stuff. From the viewpoint of an outsider it seems that the play ought to contain enough drama to excite sufficiently and enough comedy to produce laughter. It is no doubt an evenly-mixed little comedy-drama of the type which pleases the greatest number of people. The action of the play takes place in the southwest which is usually a guarantee of gun play, sombreros and black mustaches turned up at the points.

The drama will be followed by musical comedies which will be received better than the more serious plays. It is true that the drama should hold first place and that the musical shows are frivolous and do positively no good. Yet American people and particularly Dothan people want to be amused and are not especially concerned whether they are amused and elevated at the same time. The majority of people here who spend their money to see shows prefer to be amused and elevated separately. There are others who will take theirs mixed. Those who like the mixed variety will stick to the comedy-drama; the more indifferent ones will turn to farces and musical comedies.

It is not our purpose in this article to extol the virtues of either type of production. This is a question for the management of the opera house and patrons to settle. For our part we will hush unless some tabloid musical show comes along. If it does we hope the police department will chase them out of town. Most any old thing will do but tabloid and burlesque.

Manager Thomas has booked some very good attractions for the season and he has a liberal mixture of shows. The variety should be sufficient. No doubt some show will appear that you will like. The thing to do is to read the press notices and advertising matter and then you will know when the kind of show you will like will be here.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 6.—James Whitcomb Riley, Indiana's beloved poet, is receiving hundreds of messages from all parts of the United States this week congratulating him on his birthday, which will be the occasion for a nation-wide celebration today.

In Indianapolis, where the principal celebration will be held, every arrangement has been completed to make the theatrical performances in the afternoon and the banquet at night the most beautiful tribute that ever has been paid to "the Hoosier poet."

No one seems to know just how many years old Mr. Riley will be tomorrow. Asked why he kept his age a secret, he replied:

"I never want my friends to think I'm getting old."

As to the state of his health, the poet said:

"I feel like a boy."

"I haven't felt so strong in years," continued Mr. Riley; "every day I drive out in my car, and I am enjoying life in spite of the war in Europe. You see, I never read the newspapers and don't know what is going on over there. It has always been my aim to avoid things that are disagreeable and cause pain."

LEGISLATURE CAN

NOT CALL ITSELF

IN EXTRA SESSION

Much Gossip Heard in Capital About Court Recirculating Bill Vote.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 6.—Investigations have shown that members of the legislature cannot call themselves together in extraordinary session for the purpose of passing a court recirculating bill to meet conditions brought about by Governor Henderson's decision to withhold his signature from the general court recirculating bill passed during the closing days of the recent session of the legislature. The constitution prescribes only two methods for the convening of the legislature into extraordinary sessions. For the transaction of ordinary business only, the governor can call the legislature, and the only provision whereby the legislature may convene itself without the sanction of the governor is the section which gives the members the right when the impeachment and removal from office of the governor is contemplated.

Suggestions during the past few days have been that the members of the legislature should pass the general court recirculating bill over the veto of the governor. But a close reading of the constitution will show that this method cannot be used. Governor Henderson alone has the power to call a session for the purpose of passing another recirculating bill.

J. S. Calloway, of Newton, was here today enroute to Graceville and Campbellton, Fla.

Weather permitting the city council will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the new council room for the first time. The new quarters are in readiness and the citizens will have an opportunity of knowing how it feels to hold a meeting in a brand new, tasty room.

The council was to have met in the old building Monday night, but the meeting was postponed on account of a ball week meeting, a number of business men having assembled to hear talks on the Mexican pest.

KIMBERLY ITEMS

We have been having some showers which have put a stop to the hay-making and to the cotton picking to a great extent. We thought we were going through without much sickness, but we hear of some malaria and fever about.

The District School opened last Monday morning with a good beginning. Some of the patrons met and did some repairs which were needed. The way to have a good school is for all to take hold and make things move and then the teacher will have encouragement to do his whole duty.

Mrs. C. H. Burdeshaw, who has been on the sick list is up again.

Our merchants are filling up their stores as if they thought that times would soon be better. I have been expecting to see their advertisements in The Eagle but so far they have not appeared. Some times a little ad in your paper brings the desired results.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newton from near Dothan attended services at the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday.

Miss Mamie Kelly had a birthday party last Saturday evening at her home. Quite a crowd was there and all report a pleasant time.

MEANS OF LOCATING AIRSHIP PERFECTED BY GOTHAM INVENTOR

New York, Oct. 6.—Edward A. Chandler, inventor of a system of harbor defense by the detection of submarines and battleships with aid of water microphones, announced today that he has perfected a method of detecting and locating airships by the microphones.

Mr. Chandler said that he could easily discover the range, height, speed and direction of a dirigible, or other aircraft in the darkest night.

WARDEN OSBORNE DINED BY FORMER CONVICTS

New York, Oct. 6—Twenty five former convicts who served their time in Auburn or Sing Sing prison set an unusual precedent last night by giving a dinner here to Thomas M. Osborne, warden of Sing Sing, who voluntarily served a short time in Auburn prison in order to see prison life from the prisoner's viewpoint. Officials of the National Commission on Prisons and Prison Labor were also guests of the former convicts.

The purpose was to show Mr. Osborne that the men who only were imprisoned are winning their way back to industrial and social life and to show their gratitude to him.

PEANUT OIL INDUSTRY.

By Emmet A. Jones
Chief Immigration and Markets Bureau.

With a coming shortage of cotton seed from which to make oil and with the great increase in the demand for vegetable oils in this country there is a possibility of building up a peanut oil industry in the South.

By making both cotton seed oil and peanut oil in the same factories it would be possible to keep the mills in operation throughout the year. With the addition of cleaning and shelling machinery the mills now making cotton seed oil could be used for the manufacture of peanut oil.

Shelled Spanish peanuts contain 50 to 52 per cent of oil, and with up-to-date presses 42 to 44 per cent can be extracted. Good Spanish nuts will yield about one gallon of oil to one bushel of nuts weighing 30 pounds.

One ton of farmers' stock Spanish peanuts after they have been cleaned and shelled, will yield 350 to 400 pounds of first grade or edible oil, 175 to 200 pounds of second grade oil, and 800 pounds of peanut cake. The cake has about the same food value as cotton seed meal. The present indications are that a considerable quantity of first grade peanut oil could be disposed of at 75 cents a gallon wholesale, and large quantities of second grade oil at 35 cents, 40 cents a gallon for soap making.

It will be impossible, however to establish the peanut industry in the south until there is a much larger production of peanuts. At present the farmers are finding the production of peanuts profitable for the regular channels of trade and for stock feeding purposes. A little encouragement on the part of the managers of oil mills is necessary in order to secure a supply of peanuts for oil purposes.

While the average yield of peanuts is only about 34 bushels an acre, with the proper methods of culture a yield of 60 bushels of nuts and one ton to one and a half tons of forage may be expected. A yield of 75 to 100 bushels an acre is not uncommon, and even higher yields have been obtained.

The cost of growing 40 bushels of peanuts for market should not be more than $20.00 or $25.00 an acre, including $5.00 for the rent of the land. A yield of 60 or more bushels per acre would cost no more than 40 bushels except for thrashing and marketing.

During the past five years the price received by the farmer for Spanish peanuts has ranged between 60 cents and $1.25 per bushel, depending upon the time they were sold. A yield of 40 bushels at 60 cents would give a return of $24.00 for the nuts and a ton of hay worth at least $10.00. Even at this low price a fair profit would be made deducting the cost of growing.
